

REGIONAL FUGITIVE TASK FORCES

CATCH OF THE WEEK

Week of June 27th, 2005

Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force On June 27, 2005, members of the Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force and the U.S. Marshals Technical Operations Group (TOG) arrested Jaycen Aaron Croft. During April of 2005, Croft is believed to have violently assaulted a woman who was six months pregnant. The unborn infant was killed during the assault and Croft was charged with feticide. Additionally, at the time of the assault Croft was wanted for possession of methamphetamines by Chattooga County, Georgia. On June 26, 2005, Paulding County deputies located Croft and attempted to arrest him, at which time he attempted to run down a deputy with a truck. After the aggravated assault on the deputy sheriff occurred, the Paulding County Sheriff's officer requested the assistance of the Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force (SERFTF). Approximately 24 hours later, SERFTF investigators were able to determine a possible location for Croft and surveillance was established. During the surveillance, Croft, who was riding in the back of a pickup truck, was spotted and identified by investigators from a USMS fixed wing plane. As investigators moved in, a short vehicle chase ensued, however, law enforcement was able to catch up to the vehicle and capture Croft before he was able to jump from the rear of the pickup truck. Croft has a criminal history that includes numerous arrests for theft, burglary, statutory rape, possession with intent to distribute drugs, and forgery.	  Jaycen Aaron Croft Wanted for Feticide, Assault, and Possession of Methamphetamines
Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force On Saturday, June 25, 2005, at approximately 3:15 a.m., police were called to S.E. Washington, DC for the report of a shooting. Upon arrival police located a 30-year-old male victim suffering from an apparent gunshot wound to the head. The victim was transported to a local hospital but was pronounced dead at 3:55 a.m. On June 28, 2005, a warrant was issued out of D.C. Superior Court charging Jordan with first degree murder while armed. On that same date the case was turned over to the Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force for apprehension. On July 1, 2005, Task Force investigators located and arrested Jordan at a residence in N.E. Washington, DC.	  Charles Jordan Wanted for Murder

New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force It is alleged that on March 26, 2005, Andrew Brown, along with three other defendants, approached two victims and demanded their clothes and property. One victim complied with their demands; however the second victim did not and was shot multiple times. The victim was transported to a local hospital where he was pronounced dead by medical personal. Wilmington Delaware Police, who were seeking Brown on a warrant for 1st degree murder, contacted the USMS District of Delaware, who in turn requested the assistance of the NY/NJ Regional Fugitive Task Force in locating and arresting Brown. On June 27, 2005, Task Force investigators proceeded to a residence in Brooklyn, New York where Brown was identified in the rear bedroom and taken into custody. A loaded 9mm handgun was recovered from the nightstand. After his arrest, Brown stated that had he been awake at the time, he would have shot through the wall and door at arresting officers. Brown was transported to the New York City Police Departments' 69th Precinct for processing. Brown is also the prime suspect in three other non-fatal shootings in Delaware including the shooting of a relative.	 Andrew Brown Wanted for Murder
Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force On June 27, 2005, members of the Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force (GLRFTF) arrested murder suspect Jason Allen Jackson in Logansport, Indiana. On October 13, 2004, Jackson was charged in Fayette County, Alabama with two capital murder charges; one occurred during a robbery and one occurred during a kidnapping. It is alleged that Jackson and three accomplices initiated a scheme in which two of them would pose as drug dealers and while conducting a "drug deal" the other two would rob the participants, later splitting the money four ways. On April 2, 2004, Jackson and his accomplices conducted this scheme on a female victim and her male friend, but during the robbery the female victim recognized one of the four. Jackson then attempted to kill both the female and her male friend. Her male friend was able to escape through the woods, but the female victim was killed. Her body was then placed into a trunk for several days until Jackson set it on fire and placed it inside a barrel. A warrant for Jackson's arrest was adopted by the Birmingham Fugitive Initiative Task Force and a federal warrant was issued in the Northern District of Alabama for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. On June 16, 2005, a collateral lead was received by the GLRFTF, Hammond office for Jackson indicating that he may be residing in Logansport, Indiana with a cousin. Over a period of several days, surveillance was conducted on different addresses associated with Jackson and on June 27, 2005, Task Force investigators observed an individual fitting Jackson's description leaving a target residence. Investigators identified Jackson, and after a brief foot chase, apprehended him without incident. One hundred and one grams of marijuana were recovered in a plastic bag that Jackson dropped during the chase.	 Jason Jackson Wanted for Murder

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force

D'andre Moorner, alias "Scandalous D," was arrested in Los Angeles, California on June 30, 2005 by members of the Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF), deputy marshals from the Central District of California, agents from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF); the Department of Housing and Urban Development – Office of Inspector General (HUD-OIG), and Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) detectives. Moorner, a member of the "Eight-Trey Hoover" street gang was wanted by the ATF for federal firearms violations and by the LAPD for spousal battery. The charges against Moorner allege that, on February 9, 2005, he drove to his child's mother's house in Los Angeles and demanded to see his child. During the course of the encounter, LAPD Officers responded to a "man with a gun" call and took Moorner into custody, recovering an AK-47 assault rifle loaded with 28 rounds of ammunition. The rifle had been reported stolen in Las Vegas, Nevada in February 2004. Moorner was later released on bail and the case was referred to ATF for federal prosecution. On March 1, 2005, a federal warrant charging him with being a felon in possession of a firearm was issued in the United States District Court, Central District of California. Moorner has a criminal history which includes convictions for burglary, carrying a concealed weapon, battery, spousal battery, narcotics violations, and firearms violations. He also has prior arrests which include murder, kidnaping, assault with a deadly weapon, and narcotics violations. Working in conjunction with the USMS Technical Operations Group (TOG) and the USMS Financial Surveillance Unit (FSU), investigators from the PSWRFTF, ATF and LAPD developed information which indicated that Moorner was believed to be in a particular area of Los Angeles. Following a lengthy surveillance, Moorner was observed and taken into custody at the corner of Florence and Estrella Avenues without incident. Moorner was armed with a loaded .38 caliber revolver at the time of his arrest. A records check revealed that the revolver was also stolen in Las Vegas, Nevada.

"Eight-Trey Hoover" street gang member

D'Andre Moorner

Wanted for Federal Firearms Charges and Spousal Battery